Sweet Lover

Aspire to be lovers, for life without love is soulless

Love widely and wildly, love justice and beauty, creativity and knowledge, family, friends, colleagues, and all sentient creatures

But most of all, love now, because we will all, one day, disappear back into the earth from which we came

Simon Kerr August 2012
